Re: United States of America v. Eric NIXON
Criminal No. 4:17-cr-52

Motion For Speedy Trial

Here Comes the Defendant, Eric NIXON, By Defendant NIXON, Respectfully Moves the Court with A Motion for A Speedy Trial
In accordance with my 6th Amendment United States Constitutional Rights.

I, Eric NIXON, in whom is A Defendant in the above Case reference was just informed by my Court Appointed Counsel that my Trial Date has been pushed Back to October of 2019.
According to the Speedy Trial Act of 1974, in which this Court is bound by, The trial must begin within Seventy days of the filing of the information or Indictment, or within Seventy days of the date the defendant first appears before a judicial officer, "magistrate", whichever is later. My girlfriend is pregnant with my first child, therefore oppressive pretrial incarceration, anxiety, and concern comes into effect in regards to my mental health due to excessive delay of time for trial which will become presumptively prejudicial.

I was also enrolled in College at Virginia State University during the time of my arrest, I would like to have a chance to finish College. For these reasons, I object to the new trial date, and I would like to motion the court to come up with a more reasonable trial date within the defendant's speedy trial rights. Thank you very much!

Last page is not normal.

Should defendant get credit on sentence at trial with last page. A not contain a date trial off counts planted May I have a copy of the receipt. do you have something in receipt

He is defendant is a minor in trial and I should benefit from the trial being long and should get more time to review it and bring out and state that you trial is trial off date or trial to the last page off of trial off to your trial not matter what date it is I think with trial is good and trial off date is not
